At the end of this date, a jury made up of more than 10 internationally renowned personalities will make a first selection of 15 candidates from May 3 to 24, 2021.

APPLICATION AND CRITERIA FOR SELECTION:-----

Each application will be examined according to specific criteria such as:

The interest in the development of Africa and a vision of what should be the Africa of tomorrow;

The ability to reconcile business conduct and social impact;

Awareness of the need and importance of public-private dialogue;

The ability to become a decision maker at the highest level;

The strength of conviction combined with a taste for teamwork;

Social advancement (self-made routes will be a priority);

Strong ties with Africa (the candidate - or her parents - must be born / must be born in an African country or have an activity or a cause in Africa); Humility, empathy and resilience-----.

The final selection will take place during the first week of June. Five young African women leaders will be selected and will thus become the first 5 winners of the WIA Young Leaders award.

THE WINNERS WILL BENEFIT FROM A 100% PERSONALIZED SUPPORT PROGRAM-----

The winners will benefit from a 100% personalized support program:

a digital training course whose themes will be linked to female leadership and the skills of tomorrow;

a business trip to Paris during which the leaders will participate in a series of events to broaden their network and meet key personalities for the development of their careers;

a mentoring system with a high profile personality. Source: WIA
