USPA NEWS - Will merciless slaughter of human beings , blasting of multi storey buildings and even physical occupation of entire Ghaza strip solve Palestinian issue?

The answer is surely in negative until Israel vacates illegally occupied Palestinian land and recognises their right to live an honourable life in an independent sovereign state established as per UN charter and resolutions?

This is the fundamental question which needs to be answered, and not Hamas rocket attacks and the number of hostages they have taken”

Said Senator (r) Lt Gen Abdul Qayyum during his breakfast meeting in London with Sir Mark Lyall Grant former British National Security Advisor (NSA), ex Britain’s permanent representative in UN and former British High Commissioner in Pakistan. Sir Mark Lyall Grant, in response,

How his concern over the highly volatile situation prevailing in the Middle East which he said could explode and go beyond control if concerned groups don’t show diplomatic prudence.

General Abdul Qayyum stressed that the British Government must play its role in achieving an everlasting solution of Palestinian and Kashmir disputes and to immediately stop the blatant violations of international law and Geneva conventions which guarantee Human Rights and strictly forbid attacks on population centres and hospitals.

If serious issues like East Timor and Southern Sudan can be solved by peaceful means, why the oldest disputes like Palestine and Kashmir are being deliberately ignored asked the General. Mark Lyall Grant and Senator Abdul Qayyum both agreed to continue their endeavours to further strengthen UK-Pakistan bilateral politico economic and defence ties and for achieving international peace.

Mark Lyall Grant as British HC in Pakistan, has been interacting with Lt Gen Abdul Qayyum while latter was Chairman POF and Pak Steel when golfing was also an occasional activity.
