Infrastructure Ontario (IO) just announced that Marni Dicker, Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, has been recognized by the Women's Executive Network (WXN) as one of Canada's Most Powerful Women.

Launched in 2003, the Top 100 Awards celebrate the incredible accomplishments of Canada's top female executive talent in the private, public, and not-for-profit sectors. Ms. Dicker is a recipient in the public sector category. She and fellow award recipients will be celebrated tomorrow at a gala event in Toronto.

Honoured by the Network's recognition, Ms. Dicker believes that women leaders can have it all. She describes herself as an unapologetic hockey and football mom and stresses that being a leader every day begins and ends at home.

Ms. Dicker joins a prestigious community of past Award Winners, including Canada's most iconic women trailblazers: Margaret Atwood, best-selling author; Dr. Roberta Bondar, astronaut; Arlene Dickinson, chief executive officer, Venture Communications; Christine Magee, president, Sleep Country Canada; Michaëlle Jean, former Governor General of Canada; Heather Reisman, founder and chief executive officer, Indigo Books & Music; and, Kathleen Taylor, chair of the board, Royal Bank of Canada.

Ms. Dicker is also the Executive Sponsor for "Women at IO", a group designed to equip women to be more successful, personally and professionally, and encourage a culture that embraces the value that women can bring to the business and community.

Ms. Dicker was recently recognized as one of Canada's Leading Women in Infrastructure by both Women In Infrastructure and the Canadian Council for Public-Private Partnerships (C2P3).

WXN creates and delivers innovative networking, mentoring, professional and personal development to inform, inspire, connect and recognize our community of 19,000 smart women and their organizations in the pursuit of excellence. WXN enables partners and corporate members to become and to be recognized as employers of choice and leaders in the advancement of women.
